Dear George:

Enclosed is an original and one copy of the Articles of Incorporation for the subject company along with the original letter from the Department of State returning the articles because of unavailability of the name "Estrada, Inc.". It would be appreciated if you could walk this through since the company needs to be incorporated in 1996. Please fax a copy to us as soon as possible, since we need the document number of the corporation. The certified copy can be returned by regular mail.

We appreciate your assistance.
