Dear Administrator:

The purpose of this letter is to request forgiveness of the $400 dollar fine your office levys for a corporation filing their business report after May 1st. Unfortunately, I do not have a very good reason. I own a small business to which I am the only employee. My business is somewhat seasonal with causes me to be quite busy the first six months of the year.

I make no excuses. I was aware of the filing as I have filed early each of the four prior years my company has been in existence. I simply set the form aside when I received it months ago and allowed it to work it's way to the bottom of a pile of things around my desk. Today I discovered it and realized the filing date had past. Given this is the first time I have filed late, I would appreciate forgiveness of the additional fine. If that is not possible, I would appreciate a note informing me I still owe the penalty.

Any consideration is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Greg Clark
President,

Scratch Golf Scorecard, Inc.
