To whom it may concern,

Having sent in my corporate annual report on March 13 with my $150.00 check for 1997 I received the following letter and the return of my annual report and check. I spoke with Andy Dunlop who was kind enough to check why the forms were returned and my corporation dissolved. My corporation was registered on Dec 27, 1996 so the 1997 annual report would have been for three days in 1996. I never received the annual report forms. The forms were sent to my physical address and, I believe, returned. The same would have happened this year had my accountant not asked me about receiving any forms. All of my

Correspondence with my CORPORATION (3) and all of my. Email is sent to my Post Office box at 2601, SARASOTA 34230.
I have enclosed Forms which show all of my correspondence to this P.O. box. I have never, nor do I receive any mail at my physical address.

I have filled out a reinstatement form, have included a $165.00 Check and my Annual report and $150.00 Check for 1997. I do hope that you will consider this payment as payment in full. I now understand from this letter sent that a P.O. box does not work for that one form. I will notify the MAILMAN that one piece of mail each year will come to my physical address - the annual report form - and I will file accordingly.

Thank you for your consideration.

Glenn Mills
