FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF STATE
SANDRA B. MORTHAM
SECRETARY OF STATE
DIVISION OF CORPORATIONS

DEAR MM. MORTHAM;

I understand that the annual report that I failed to turn in is a standard form that was mailed out to us in January of this year. I am claiming that I never saw the form. This is quite possible as we moved from the Dunedin address during January to our present address in Bradenton, Florida. we now get mail at four locations; our two shops and home in Bradenton and we continue to get some mail at our old address in Dunedin. We get back to Dunedin about once a month and usually find some surprises when we look through the mail that has accumulated there. The property management people were ready to throw us out of our Orange Blossom shop.

I have filled out the application for reinstatement after reading the instructions and hope I got it right. In keeping with instructions given me by your office I am enclosing this letter and our check for $175.00. May Pony's Properties be properly reinstated and blessed by the great state of Florida.

Sincerely Yours,

Maurice D. Carpenter
