RE: EMJ International, Inc.
Document #P96000104462

Gentlemen:

Our above referenced client came to our office on Tuesday, April 30, 2002 to pick up his Financial Statements for the quarter ended March 31, 2002. During the visit, he signed several tax forms and wrote various checks.

Unfortunately, a temporary assistant at our office filed some correspondence in the client's folder that was intended to be mailed. Among those was the Uniform Business Report with a check for $150.00. It was only today when we retrieved the folder to do additional work that we discovered that the envelope was never mailed.

We respectfully request that the penalties for late filing be waived since there was no willful neglect to disregard the law.

Very truly yours,

RAMON S. HERNANDEZ, P.A.
