Re: Reinstatement of Corporation

Dear Sir or Madam:

It has just come to my attention that our corporation was dissolved as of 10/16/98. I have searched through my files and can find no notice/contact from your office regarding this matter. In researching this problem, the only conclusion I have reached is that we never received the notice regarding the annual report for 1998. This could have been due to the move we made to Bradenton, Florida and it may have gotten lost in the move. In speaking with your office I was made aware that since the dissolution occurred in 1998, a notice for 2004 would never have been sent.

In an effort to resolve this situation, as instructed by your office, I have filled out the enclosed form with the appropriate information. I have also enclosed our check for $1,200.00.

I appreciate your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

George E. Everhart, President
