Dear Sir/Madam:

I am writing regarding the unfortunate late filing of my 2000 Uniform Business Report. Apparently the "change of address" was overlooked by the Department when I submitted my 1999 Uniform Business Report and the first notice was returned because I have been in my new office over a year. Interestingly, I only moved down the hall and the U.S. Postal Service erratically delivers some mail with the Suite 324 address and returns other mail to the "sender". When I received the most recent notice with the due date of September 13, 2000, I thought that this was my first notice until I began filling it out and noticed the filing fee of $750.00. After speaking with someone in your office I decided to write this note pleading my case and requesting that you accept the enclosed $150.00.

Thank you in advance for your understanding and consideration in this matter.
Please feel free to contact me at my office at (407) 740-8899.

Respectfully yours,

Charles W. English, Owner/President
