Dear Sir or Madam,

I am sorry that the attached return is late. Bayboro Books is a small business and we sold all the assets in March 2000. It is only kept as a corporation because the new owners owe the corporation for the asset sale, in the form of a mortgage loan, and we are receiving no income except the interest from that loan. I have had serious family health problems in the last few months which have consumed much of my attention and time. I apologize for the delay. The additional late fee would seriously hurt this business and I would ask you to weigh the circumstances and abate the fee.

Sincerely,

Joseph M. Cortese
President
