Dear Sir or Madam,

I was very upset and angry to have been given a fine for not returning the 1998 Profit Corporation Annual Report, which you neglected to send to me.

This is my first year of my company being incorporated. If I had known that there was a due date and a fee to be paid at that time, instead of waiting for your Annual Report packet I would have phoned and asked for it to be sent saving me the surprise of receiving your second notice without having received the first notice!

My wife and I are most meticulous in paying our bills and if you check our credit rating, it is of the highest standard.

I am therefore sending you the $150.00 payment for the first notice that I never received and I hope that you are willing to accept this as payment in full, as I feel that under the circumstances it is only just and right.

I remain sincerely yours,

Mr. William Steadman,
