Gentlemen:

With reference to the above captioned corporations, enclosed please find completed Uniform Business Reports for the year 2000, along with our remittance of fees for $150 per corporate structure.

For your records, I would like to plead for your indulgence regarding the late payment fees normally assessed. According to your records, these renewal forms were sent out twice to this address, however, we did not receive either set. Since this is my first year with these organizations, I stupidly assumed that since we used a service to file the reports in Delaware and California, we would use the same service to file the reports in Florida. I actually called and spoke with CDR, and they referred me back to their billing, which appears to be for CA --- FL and DE. I was aware that Uniform Business Reports need to be filed, but again, I stupidly assumed that the services we paid for from CDR would cover the Florida reports too.

A second call to CDR, after we made the discovery that the UBR's were not file, explained that the CA --- FL designation on their billing meant that it was for registering a Florida Corporation in California. I should not have been so accepting of their information, however, that is their business, and we do pay them a rather healthy fee.

Please accept my abject apologies for this gross oversight, and allow for a waiver of the late payment charges. It certainly will never happen again.

Sincerely,

OVERSEAS PRECISION CASTINGS, INC.
