LANDSCAPING AND MAINTENANCE

August 14, 1998

Florida Department of State Arbitration Committee Division of Corporations P.O. Box 6327 Tallahassee, Florida 32314

Dear Arbitration Committee,

This letter is to request a waver of the $400.00 late fee with an explanation of why Black Orchid Landscaping, Inc. is late in submitting our Corporation Annual Report. We recently moved our residence at the end of April, 1998, to Indian Rocks Beach and that is where the 2nd notice was sent to. The reason I believe that perhaps the first notice was returned to Tallahassee was upon looking at the signature page the principal place of business states St. Pewfersburg, I; which does not exist. In addition, the name and address of current registered agent is not Beckley-Smith, correctly it should be Beckley-Smith. Somehow the new address was put on the second notice addressed to Black Orchid Landscaping, and this is the notice I received. When I spoke with a representative about this matter, she explained someone must have called in the new address but I did not. Being the first year in business, I did not even know of such an annual report or investing and paying a fee. However, I do now.

Enclosed you will find a check for $150.00 and the report. Again, I am sorry for the tardiness and hope that you will wave this late fee. In the future, I will be looking for this form late January as your representative informed me.

Thank you for your kind consideration in this matter.

Lally X

Sinceret
