Fifty Shares

shares of a par value of

b. All shares to be issued fully paid and non-assessable. The capital stock of the corporation may be paid in lawful money of the United States or in property, labor or services at a fair and just valuation to be fixed by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors. Said termination of just value fixed by the Board of Directors is to be conclusive proof of said value.

c. All of the common stock is to have one vote per share in the control of the management of the corporation.

d. In the event any shareholder be unable to attend a shareholders' meeting, the shareholder may vote his share or shares by proxy, one share representing one vote.

ARTICLE V.

ALIENATION OF STOCK

In furtherance and not in limitation of the power conferred by Statute, the following specific provisions are made for the regulation of business and conduct of the affairs of the corporation.

a. Any stockholder shall have the right and power without the consent of other stockholders of the corporation to substitute for himself or themselves in this corporation other persons, whether they are stockholders or not, so long as the corporation or the then other existing stockholders are first offered such stock. This does not limit the right of any stockholder to negotiate with the corporation or the other stockholders of the corporation as a group for the sale of this stock; and should an agreement be confirmed to sell the stock to the corporation or to the then existing stockholders on an equally proportionate basis, then a sale may be consummated; and if such a sale cannot be consummated, then

b. The party desiring to sell all or part of his stock shall serve notice upon all other stockholders by certified mail, return receipt requested, indicating that he has a bona fide offer for the sale of his stock stating the number of shares to be sold, the name and address of the person desiring to purchase same, and the sales price and terms of payment of such sale; said notice must also contain an offer to sell such stock upon the terms and conditions set forth in the aforesaid bona fide offer of sale to the corporation or the other existing stockholders on an equally proportionate basis, or to a single stockholder.

c. For a period of fifteen (15) days after the receipt of such notice, the corporation shall have the option to redeem the stock so offered. If the corporation fails to exercise such option, the other stockholders shall have the option to purchase such stock in equal amounts; however, should one or more of the stockholders not purchase his or their proportionate share of the offered stock, then the remaining stockholder or stockholders may exercise the option individually or, if more than one, on an equally proportionate basis within thirty (30) days after the termination of the corporation's option to redeem.

d. In the event that neither the corporation nor the other stockholders shall exercise the option to redeem or purchase, as the case may be, as provided herein the offering stockholder shall be free to dispose of the shares of stock offered to the person named in the aforesaid bona fide offer of purchase at the price and upon the terms and conditions set forth in the offer;

PROVIDED, HOWEVER; that such disposition must be made within ninety (90) days following the stockholder's offer.

ARTICLE VI.

PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS

Every shareholder, upon the sale for cash of any new stock of this corporation of the same kind, class or series as that which he already holds, shall have the right to purchase his pro rata share thereof (as nearly as may be done without issuance of fractional shares) at the price at which it is offered to others.

ARTICLE VII.

BY-LAWS

The regulation of the business and the conduct of the affairs of the corporation and the provisions creating and limiting the powers of the corporation, the directors and the stockholders, or any class of stockholders of the corporation, shall be controlled by the By-Laws which shall be adopted by the stockholders of the corporation as soon as practicable after the corporation shall be formed, which

- said By-Laws may, from time to time and whenever necessary, be amended by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.
