Re: Paint World Inc. - 451 N.W. 36th Street

Dear Sir/Madam:

Pursuant to information received from your office, please be advised that we are requesting a waiver of penalty for last year and this year since we did not receive notices.

Unfortunately we have had problems receiving our mail because although our address has not changed, the property was subdivided; and even though the post office has been properly notified, we are still not receiving all our mail including notices, checks and other materials.

We have been assured that the matter has been rectified but the problems occur again when we receive a new mail carrier unaware of the changes.

Thank you in advance for your immediate attention.

Very truly yours,

Fernando
