Re: AAA Locksmith, Inc.
#P97000012499

To whom it concerns,

My name is Richard G Lucas, the owner and operator of AAA Locksmith. I am very diligent about taking care of my business related bills, taxes, and my corporation. It's just me and my wife Kathy Lucas, a Mom & Pop business. Sirs, I assure you that it is unfortunate but true, the post office here in this section of Hollywood anyway, delivers me everyone else's mail and I see now mine to them as well. I "promise" you we did not receive either of your letters concerning this renewal. As I pay the same day on everything that has to do with my bread & butter. I have been in business for 21 years now (sole proprietor) and incorporated in 1997 and admit, I was not tuned in long enough (on corporation procedures) to remember something should have come.

This amount of money right now would definitely devastate both my Locksmith Co. and my personal financial obligations. I have always been aware that steep penalties can occur, but I usually, most of the time get at least one of two letters! Not to mention that there is a small possibility of espionage going on here on my block of which I could definitely show if necessary. Please, I beg of you, take my money ($150.00) and reinstate AAA, and file this letter as my word. I assure you, I will hang a copy this letter in my office (FRAMED) as to remind me to EXPECT this renewal each year.

With extreme sincerity,

Richard and Kathy Lucas

P.S. This letter just CAME today?!
