Dear Sir/Madam:

Please find enclosed my 2003 Uniform Business Report, along with replacement check #1825, in the amount of $150.00. Since I had previously filed this report in March of this year, I was surprised to receive another notification of the report being due.

Upon checking with my bank, I was informed that check #1812, which I sent you March 30th, has still not cleared. I am assuming that it has been lost in the mail. Therefore, to expedite matters, I am sending the enclosed replacement check. Should you wish to, you have my authorization to confirm this missing check status with my bank.

If my prior check should eventually surface, please be so kind as to void it and return it to me for my records. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Very truly yours,

Carol-Lee Green
