To Whom It May Concern,

I am a licensed mortgage broker business here in Florida.

I have a problem - hopefully you will be able to help me:

In 1998 I paid my corporation dues for that year. Since that was the first year of my corporation, I assumed that I would be billed every year. In 1999 I received no notice of renewal, therefore I assumed that I would be billed as my mortgage license is billed which is every two years.

The reason I am writing is because now it is the year 2000 and I still have received no notice to renew my corporation. In 1998 my notice read that payment had to be received by May 1st or pay a penalty.

I live in a condo in Boca Raton and a lot of times I do not get my mail. I have complained many times to the post office about certain literature I have not received. I have been told that sometimes it goes into the wrong boxes. I have not received my notice and I am going into my second year. I have talked to other people who have corporations and they told me that I should have gotten a notice last year - which I DID NOT get.

I have a corporation called "Whoops Unlimited Inc." and being a new corporation, I do not want to do anything to jeopardize the corporation. It is a sole-proprietorship and I am the president. I would like to get this in order - - Please!

All I know is that I paid for 1998 and have not made a payment since. Once again - my mortgage business has me pay every two years for my license. Is this your policy also? Please advise me as soon as possible.

Sincerely yours,
Richard J. Najar Jr.
President of Whoops Unlimited Inc.
