Dear Sir or Madam:

I was informed by the credit company who floorplans our cars that they are freezing our account as our corporation is no longer active with the state. I researched this and found that the check I had sent in with the Annual Report filed last year has not been cashed. Attached is several pages from our checking account showing the check that we issued. I have not been notified by the state that we were no longer an active corporation. We do have quite a bit of trouble with mail going to the wrong office here in our building, but I have never seen any notification that we were no longer active.

I called the state and they told me to download the reinstatement form from the internet and send it in with a check for $150. along with copies from our bank statement which I have enclosed. PLEASE call me if there is anything else you need as I have to get the corporation reinstated ASAP or I will be put out of business. You can reach me at 561 684-7788.

Thanking you I am,
