Gentlemen:

Please be advised that I did not receive any communication from your office, regarding the 2001 Uniform Business Report prior to June of this year. The report is due on or before 12 September 2001.

When preparing to send the report to meet the 12 September deadline, I noticed that the report was due between 1 January and 1 May.

Since I received no notice prior to June, I requested guidance from your office. I was advised to send the report with a check for $150. Accordingly I am submitting my report and check.

In the future I would appreciate receiving early notice so I can comply with the 1 January - 1 May filing period.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Very truly yours,

John W. Mitchell
