Dear Ms. Mortham:

I am writing to request that you consider waiving the $ 300.00 penalty for late filing of our corporate annual report. I received the 2nd Notice last week, but I never received the Original Notice. We incorporated in 1997 and I did not realize that this was something that we would have to file every year. We also moved after we incorporated and this may be the reason that we never received the original report from your office.

We have hired an accounting firm to help us with our tax preparation and bookkeeping and they assure me that this mistake will not happen again in the future. Please consider our request. $ 300.00 right now is a significant amount of money that we simply need to keep in the business, not pay in penalties. Thank you for your assistance in this matter. I have enclosed our check for $ 150.00.

Sincerely yours,

Anthony F. Peterworth, Jr.
President
