We have deleted the "doing business as name" in our document per your instructions. We have filed an application for a fictitious name - see enclosed.

We respectfully request that our application for incorporation be processed promptly due to strict federal tax implications if not approved by March 7th, 1997. It is not of importance that we use a certain d/b/a name. We will be able to market our goods under many different names of choice - we are sure we will find one that is not being used. Please do not delay our corporate application for any approvals needed to use the applied fictitious name. If it is legal to apply as enclosed with said changes per your instructions, please submit the document for approval.

May we ask that if there appears to be any other problems with our document that you telephone us at 1-800-324-5675 and ask for James Testasecca our legal CPA and consultant or fax us at (813)685-6010. If an additional $78.75 is required please phone or fax us immediately upon the reading of this letter - we will wire the funds to you.

Thank you,

Robert C. Gomez, President
