Dear Sir or Madame,

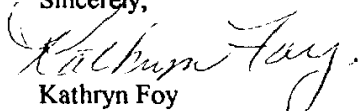

We received our Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation. We never received our notice to file our annual reports. We also, did not receive our second notice. We also, have another business that as of this date, we still have not received notice to file our annual report or Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation. We only had the businesses for about three years and if we don't receive notification, we are ignorant to things we only file annual.

We had been having problems with a mail carrier who has been delivering mail to my husband's office since January of this year. Our address was changed to accommodate 911 but we were told that our mail would still be delivered with the former address. We are not the only people that have had trouble with this carrier and it has been documented at the Post Office. I spoke to Stacy at your office and she said to fill out the Reinstatement Application and to just include the normal fee of $150.00. She felt that since we never received the notice to file our Annual reports and because of our dilemma with our mail carrier that the other fees would be waived. We will also, be changing the mailing address so that this problem will not occur again.

I'm also, including a copy of the complaint that was filed by Dr. Greene our neighbor in our building to show you that it was not only our office that was experiencing mail problems.

If you have any further questions you may contact me at my office 904/824-7794

Sincerely,

Kathryn Foy
