RE: P97000020106 Reinstatement

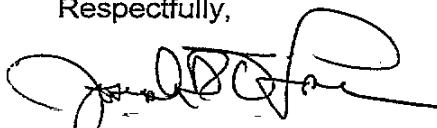

To Whom It May Concern:

After a telephone conversation with a Representative of your office (Andy) on this date, we were advised to write to you to offer an explanation of why the Annual Corporation Report and fee was not filed. Quite simply, we didn't know there was a form or fee to file because we never received the notification which apparently would have been sent in the beginning of this calendar year.

There was some confusion with the property manager for a period of time as to our presence in the complex because our space was leased under my name for two years before we formed the company and decided to incorporate it. This was the first year for which we would be receiving such information and quite possibly the manager did not recognize the name and returned it or put in the lost letters pile. We also use a Post Office Box for most of our mail so there would not be much going to the Wickham Road address for the manager to become acquainted with the name.

The first time we knew something was amiss was when we received the Revocation form, to our surprise. We are herewith submitting our filing fee as your office Representative advised us. We humbly request that you review this explanation and allow us to correct it. We didn't know we had missed any of the necessary documentation or filing fees. Please accept our apologies as we await your reply.

Respectfully,

Joseph R. O'Lone
President
