December 26, 2000

Department of State
409 East Gaines Street (32399)
P.O. Box 6327
Tallahassee, FL 32314

During the entire summer, (between May 30, 2000 through October 1, 2000) I lived and worked as a consultant in Miamisburg, Ohio, working on-site at the Department of Energy facility located in Miamisburg, Ohio.

I usually returned home at the end of each month, and mail was being forwarded to me at the middle of each month. The Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation that I received did not arrive until after the Labor Day holiday, and was not forwarded to me until after the 18th. By then, the renewal period without additional penalty had already expired on September 13th.

I called your office last week, spoke to one of your representatives, and explained what had happened. At his suggestion, I am forwarding the fees listed below, along with this letter of explanation, with hope that you will agree to waive the Reinstatement fee.

I have attached the following fees, Payable to Department of State, for Reinstatement of the company listed on letterhead above.

Reinstatement Fee	$ 61.25
Corporate Supplemental Fee	88.75
Certificate of Status	8.75
Total Enclosed:	$158.75

Sincerely,

Robert Petrek

January 9, 2000

Department of State

P.O. Box 6327
Tallahassee, FL 32314

Ref. Number P97000020813
Letter Number 200A00064762

I received your letter dated December 28, 2000, but not postmarked until January 2, 2001. Your letter indicated that your office was unable to waive the reinstatement fee, unless our corporation never received prior notification from your office.

Our company did not receive prior notification by mail prior to the Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation. Perhaps it was because we had been Administratively Dissolved in 1999; maybe it was for some other reason that the notification didn't reach us. But after having paid the reinstatement and Certificate of Status fees at the end of 1999, I wouldn't have overlooked the document(s) and made the same expensive mistake again.

In my letter to you dated December 26, 2000, I indicated that I had discussed our company's situation with one of your staff members, and now remember that the person I talked with strongly suggested that I include remarks both confirming our conversation and about not having prior notification.

With this in mind, and with your reply not postmarked until January 2, 2001, would you please reconsider our request for Reinstatement and waive the reinstatement fees for 2000 and 2001?

A copy of the original request is attached herein.

Sincerely,

Robert Petrek
