To Whom It May Concern,

Today I realized that I had never sent in my report due in 2001. I have no idea what happened. I looked everywhere and could not even find the report.....and this is very strange because I normally would never lose something like this. I called your office and explained that the only reason that this could have got by me was because my dad just died, and it has been a very hectic time with taking care of everything for my mom. The lady at your office helped me to download the right form, and she told me to fill it out and send it in with $150.00, and this letter explaining why it was late. I cannot begin to tell you how grateful I am to still be able to pay just the $150.00.....as it has been very hard to make ends meet with all the expenses I have had to help my mom with. Thank you.

Robert E. Martz
