Tallahassee, Florida 32399
Attn: Annual Report Division

To Whom It May Concern:

On August 14th at 11:18 a.m. I had spoken to a woman named Shy, no last name given. I had explained to her that I was not sent an annual report form. She had then proceeded to get our company's name and address and state that I would be receiving the form in the mail within the next ten (10) days. I had received on the 28th of August two forms which were for Fictitious name registration. On that day the 28th of August at 3:22 p.m. I then called the division again and spoke with a woman named Angie no last name again given. I had explained to her what happened and at that time also had asked her if I should send in the amount of Five Hundred and Fifty Dollars, she, Angie had stated that I should only send in the amount of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars and write a letter explaining of the events that occurred in the process of our company receiving the incorrect papers, let alone not receiving any to begin with. If you would like the two (2) forms I had received on the Fictitious name registration I will be more than happy to accommodate your division. I then on today's date, September 4, 1998 had called the division again at 12:37 p.m. and left a voice mail recording stating that I did not receive a form as to date. But, later on in the afternoon as I proceeded to get the mail I noticed the form was received. So, again I spoke with your Division and spoke with a woman named Stacey, no last name given at 3:41 p.m. She proceeded to answer questions I had and also stated to send the enclosed amount along with the letter. Please, notify us as soon as possible if additional funds are needed for our company to be registered legally. Your cooperation and utmost understanding will be appreciated. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Edda T. Slowinski, V.P. of Gary L Slowinski Millwork Inc.
