Dear Sir or Madam:

I arrived home from a buying trip to find your 2nd notice regarding a profit corporation annual report. As a first time business owner I have been confused by many things but I know that I never received a first notice. I receive mail from the state of Florida often but its usually addressed to the previous tenants of this business space, formerly called the Garden Cottage. I would never have over looked something that looks this important.

I apologize for this delay. My head spins from the paperwork required to run a small business. I have since hired an accountant to see that these matters are handled correctly in the future.

I have been running this business since March of 1997 and as of yet have not been able to draw any pay as of this writing. The additional $400 would be an extreme hardship.

Thank you for your understanding;

Sincerely,

Colleen V. Aboud
