Mr Toner:

Enclosed you will find the application for my corporation as well as a copy of a letter from the Annual Reports Section.

I never received the original Annual Report for 1999. I rent office space in a building - my landlord hands out the mail and I never received any such letter. I did receive the second notice that was sent out to me. I immediately called Tallahassee and was told that I should mail the $150.00 immediately with a letter attached. I did that - but they are still requesting additional funds from me.

I just called the Division of Corporations again, and I was given your name and address to write this letter to. I am a small corporation and we pay all of our bills on time. I acted responsibly when I received the second notice by calling and notifying the office that I had not received the original notice.

My corporation is small and the additional $400.00 due would be a financial strain for the corporation. I do hope that you can waive the late fee as this was not our fault that payment was not made.

Thank you for taking the time to read my request.
