Preferences, Limitations and

Relative Rights of Shares of Capital Stock

Section 1. Dividends.

The holders of record of the Shares shall be entitled to cash dividends when and as declared by the Board of Directors at the rate per share per annum and at the time and in the manner determined by the Board of Directors in the resolution authorizing it. Such cash dividends on Shares shall be cumulative so that if for any dividend period cash dividends at the specified percentage rate per share per annum shall not have been declared and paid or set apart for payment on the Shares outstanding, the deficiency shall be declared and paid or percentage rate per share per annum upon the outstanding Shares, the directors may declare and pay dividends upon the Common Shares.

Section 2. Rights upon Liquidation or Dissolution.

In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of this corporation, the holders of record of the outstanding Shares shall be entitled to be paid prorata for each of such Shares, plus accumulated dividends thereon up to the date of such liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of this corporation, whether or not this corporation shall have a surplus or earnings available for dividends, and no more. After payment to the holders of Shares of the amount payable to them as above set forth, the remaining assets of this corporation shall be payable to and distributed ratable among the holders of record of the Common Shares.

Section 3. Voting Rights.

Except as otherwise provided by law, the entire voting power for the election of directors and for all other purposes shall be vested exclusively in the holders of the outstanding Common Shares.

Article VI

Preemptive Rights

Every shareholder, upon the sale for cash of any new stock of this corporation of the same kind, class, or series as that which he already holds, shall have the right to purchase his prorata share thereof (as nearly as may be done without issuance of fractional shares) at the price at which it is offered to others.

Article VII
