Dear Sir or Madam:

I recently received the enclosed Uniform Business Report stating that it must be filed by September 13, 2002. However, I filed this report earlier in the year and on time. I sent a check along with the filing in the amount of $150.00 on April 18th, 2002, and I have included a copy of this check along with this correspondence.

I did not receive any other correspondence from your office, other than the new Uniform Business Report stating that I now needed to file and send in a check for $550.00.

I phoned the Florida Department of State and the person that I spoke with stated that it looked like there may have been an error on the original form having to do with the registered agent; however, I never received any notice of this error. The representative that I spoke with said to fill out the new form and send it in with a letter explaining what had happened, which is what I have done now.

Please contact me at 863-207-3360 if I am required to do more to rectify this matter.

Sincerely,
Southern Select Inc. Realty
