To whom it may concern,

Reference to my conversation with one of your employees on July 1, 1998 about disregarding the late fees on the 1998 Annual Report. She advised me to write you this letter to explain the reason of delinquency.

I called one of your employees on January 17, 1998 to inform you of the new address for the corporation and the officer, and we are still receiving papers and notices on the old address. although, I did not receive the first notice. However, I hope that you wave the late fees.

I appreciate your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Wail Khalaf
