TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Recently, I received a letter from the law office Karmin and Adler, which opened my corporation. It was dated November 13th, and it contained a "2nd notice" for filing a corporation annual report.

To begin with, Karmin & Adler never received a 1st notice. And, in fact, they received the 2nd notice a week and a half after the deadline to file the report. As a result, my corporation has been dissolved.

Being my first year as a corporation, I was not aware of this particular filing. And, upon checking my corporate records, I have noticed that the law firm's address was erroneously put as the mailing address (I'm not sure why). However, I am requesting that you reinstate my corporation for the normal filing fee, as opposed to the fee with penalties. I would appreciate a letter to this matter to explain the error which your department made by not sending a first notice, and why the second notice was not sent in due time. I have changed the address so that this mishap won't happen in the future.

Sincerely,

Deborah S. Houston
