Dear Sir/Madam:

Please be advised that we received the late notice of our filing and immediately contacted your office. We moved our office during the month of April, and had not received the first notice; we were in our first year of business and had no idea that this would be coming in April.

After we received this notice we contacted your office and we had been told to write you a letter explaining the circumstances and you would possibly waive the penalty. Please find enclosed a check for $150.

Thank you for your help regarding this matter.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Greg J. Nichols". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Greg" being more prominent.
