To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is a request for abatement of the penalty I'm being charged for late filing of my annual report. I moved to a new location approximately two years ago. Last year I didn't receive a report and had to have my bookkeeper fill out a blank report for me to mail. This year the address was incorrect on my report therefore I didn't receive it again. Unfortunately I was traveling out of town and didn't realize I'd missed the deadline until I finally received my second notice. Please make the changes to my address so this doesn't happen next year. It would make more sense for me to mail the report in on a timely basis to avoid the extra expense. Please take this matter into consideration.

Thank you,

Teresa Jackson
President
