Dear Sir or Madam:

Due to moving both my home and my business, I missed the deadline for filing the Uniform Business Report for 2003 because I did not receive the forms.

I'm following the instructions that I was given by the customer service representative that I spoke with on the telephone when requesting the forms.

Per your instructions, I am submitting the form together with my $150. check and would like to request your sympathy and that you permit me to file now, without penalty.

Sincerely,

Elain J. Brown
President
