Re: Annual Report

My wife, Loverna Robinson, passed away on March 8, 1998. While going through some paperwork this morning I discovered our Annual Report had not been filed. She has always filed in the past and I did not know this hadn't been done this year.

I called the Division of Corporations this morning and the clerk stated that if I would explain what happened I would not be charged the late fee.

Enclosed is our check for $150.00, and my thanks for your understanding and help.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Robinson
