To Whom It May Concern:

I received this second notice for filing my corporation's annual report last month. As you can see from the copy of the enclosed mailing envelope, it was forwarded twice before getting to me at my vacation home in Michigan. I never received the original form to file this report, and since my corporation is only two years old, I didn't know I had to file one of these each year.

I called your offices when I received the notice saying $550 was due and was told by the lady there that all I needed to do was enclose a letter saying I had never received the first notice for this report and pay the regular $150 fee.

Please credit the enclosed check for $150 and change the address of record to the one I have noted on your form.

Sincerely,

Kathleen M. Wheeler
