Dear Sir or Madam:

We receive a second notice and after reviewing our records we realize that the check # 1700 payable to Department of State is still outstanding. We mailed the Annual Report with a check on April 28th, 2000, when we balance the bank account on May we realize that the check was still outstanding and I call (850) 488-9000 and they told me that they are still working in the process. We was waiting for the Bank statement of June to see if the check was cancelled by the Bank and now we receive the Second Notice with the penalties of $550.00.

We never receive back from the mail our annual report returned or nothing else. We call your department a gain and they told me that I need to send a letter of explanation with the new form and the check.

Please review our case, we believe that is no fair that we need to pay $ 400.00 as penalties for a misplaced documents. Enclosed please find copy of the envelope where we sent the first time the report with the check missing. In addition, the New reports with a new check.

Thank you, for take care our petition. If you need additional information, do not hesitate to call Mrs. Solano at (305) 441-2606

Sincerely,

Yolanda Solano
Accountant

Enclosure:

- Copy of postdated envelope sent by us.
- Check # 1832 replacing Check # 1700
- Second request of UBR 2000.
