Form 2001 UBR

Gentlemen:

I am writing on behalf of my client, JKS Corp. who recently received notice of non-filing of form 2001 UBR. We were surprised to be advised of such situation, due to the fact that the client issued check #2767 on March 21, 2001 and I personally mailed the form & check "Certified Mail" as I do for many clients, only to avoid an incident like this occurring. I am enclosing a replacement check #3113 for $150.00 and mailing it Certified Return Receipt. I am asking your consideration in this matter and abating any penalties as due diligence was initially used and my client should not be held accountable for non-delivery of mail that he has absolutely no control of.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter and please reply promptly indicating your decision.

Very truly yours,

Robert Bernard
Public Accountant
