RE: ANNUAL CORPORATE REPORT STATUS 1998
Document# P97000042149

Dear Ms. Mortham,

Please be advised that this letter is being sent in regards to our Corporate Status filing for 1998. Upon notice that we received from your office we examined our files and found that we never received an Annual Report notice, however, we have received the enclosed notice for Reinstatement.

On Friday December 11, 1998, I telephoned your office and informed the person I spoke with about this situation and was instructed to send this letter of explanation along with the enclosed check for $150.00.

This error may have been caused through some confusion by the U.S. Mail service. In April 1998 we changed our mail delivery address with proper notice to the Vero Beach Post Office and since that time have also encountered difficulties with other pieces of mail inadvertently lost, and/or, never received.

We ask that you review this situation and restore the Corporate standing. My apology for any inconvenience this error has caused your Office.

Thank you in advance, for your time and consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Gilbert L. Mains, Jr.
President
