To Whom It May Concern:

I was quite surprised to have received your "Notice of Administrative Dissolution" for the above referenced corporation. I have spoken with someone in your office and he said that I should have received an original UBR earlier this year as well as a second notice in June... I have not received either. I assure you that I work very hard to be compliant with the many filing requirements placed on business' today by the various taxing authorities, and had I received either notification I would have taken care of it. For this reason I ask that you abate any penalty and reinstate this corporation immediately. Enclosed please find our check for $150.00 along with our Application for Reinstatement.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Alfred Congnetti
President
