To Whom It May Concern:

As we talked over the phone, I am sending you the copy of my stubs and a copy of my bank statement for April 99. Please make sure, these remains confidential as my tax id number is on the bank statement.

In addition I am enclosing the new form and a check for the money I owe you without the penalty.

I am really sorry for my late call. It is very confusing for me all these forms to fill out. I kept it on my desk since the first time I called you just after I received the second notice. Then I forgot about it, and when I called you today, I thought it was resolved and you had received my check a long time ago.

As you can see another check was missing the same month. Did I drop those 2 envelopes when I went to the post office? I don't know but the other one was a Chevron aviation fuel bill and they sent me right away a second notice.

Sorry for the inconvenience,

Best regards,

Christian Boddi.
