To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is on behalf of two Corporations I file Uniform Business Reports for. In all I file nine different UBR's for nine Corporations under my supervision. This year I noticed you "online filing" method and chose to attempt this as an alternative to the more traditional filing by mail. As you would expect with nine to file this seemed like a super timesaver. All went as planned for seven of the nine and I have to say for a non-computer person this was rather easy and a great way to file. However there were two Corporations that I had some trouble with. They allowed all of the information in, but got hung up in the credit card screen. I am not sure if I made an error in typing or if the credit card company saw multiple charges from the same vendor for the same amount and stopped accepting those charges. I called the Credit card Company and they said all should be ok to try again and call them back if this did not work again. This is where I had trouble. Once the processing has started and you leave the screen it won't let you back in it just continues to say "in que" and does not go anywhere.

This would not be a big deal if it weren't for the date I attempted these. As I am unsure if the report has to be post marked by the May 1, 2002 date or has to have reached you by that date this request may be unnecessary. The two UBR's in question are in fact postmarked May 1, 2002. If this is satisfactory then no harm done. However, if these had to be there by that date I would request that you please consider abating the penalty as the filing was made online within the parameters of an "ontime" filing.

I have attached the documents I was able to print from these attempts. The two Corporations in question are :

First Coast Acceptance Company, Inc
Document # P95000002649

And

Key Graphics, Inc.
Document # P97000044903

The Corporations I was able to file were :- Beck Auto Sales, Inc / Beck Nissan, Inc / B Auto Group, LLC / Oasis Auto Sales, Inc. / Florida Recovery Systems, Inc / Towles, Inc / Beck/Sloan Properties, Inc.

I do apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused . Thank you for you help with this matter.
