Ref. Reinstatement of Corporation --
Skyland Corporation -- Document # P97000045216

Dear Sirs,

I created the corporation of reference in 1997 through an Accountant, who never informed me that I had to file an annual report before May 21st to avoid the corporation to be dissolved and a penalty to be applied to reinstate it.

Also, in October 1997, I moved, giving notice to the postal service to reroute the mail to my new address, but it seems that the notice that you sent me with the forms for the above mention annual report was never delivered to me because I never got it.

I never realized that I had to comply with the filing of an annual report because the corporation has never been active until now, when I am about to open up a small store and I need to get the sales tax I.D. For this reason I went to your Miami office, where a lady told me that the corporation was not active.

You will find enclosed a check for $ 150.00 to reinstate the corporation, please be so kind to consider my negligence only an act of ignorance and waive the penalty; this is not going to happen again since now I know the rules I have to comply with.

In case my appeal is not considered, please return the check since I do not have the money to pay for the penalty.

Thank you,
Sincerely,

~~Skyland Corporation~~
