Dear Sean, In the beginning of July I received my first notice in the mail that I owed, $155000 for my annual corporation report. 9400 of which was a late tee; although I never received my original notice, and since this is my first year in business I I did not know to expect it in the mail. I called immediatly and was Hold to right a letter explaining what happened and send a check for $15000; which I did that day. This week I received it in the mail asking for back was told to write another letter to you at a different addiress. I am sending back the check, and paper work, hopeing you will understand my situation, I have always tried to be very responsible, rew business. I find it very unfair that I am being charged a late fee, for a notice I never received in the mail.

Thank You,
