Dear Ms. Hampton:

Thank you for your prompt assistance regarding my current situation for reinstatement. I am writing per your request to provide an explanation for the delay of the renewal application for Elite Staffing Services, Delray Beach, FL. I am the owner of this company FEI # 65-0757028 which is a small minority franchise in Palm Beach County. We provide employment for our state. During my ownership, I have always responded to important documents, or any other correspondence which needed immediate attention such as the "reinstatement" application. I apologize for the delay; however, the application was never received to promptly reinstate our corporation.

I am in the process of increasing financial funds for our payroll via Bank Atlantic, Boynton Beach, FL. On Friday October 7, 2000 I was notified by our financial institution that our monies were "frozen" due to the non current status of Elite Staffing Services Inc. I immediately researched this statement and found it to be sadly true. Due the financial hardship this has caused on last weekend payroll 10/1/00 and this weekend payroll 10/8/00 I am requesting the immediate reinstatement to fund payroll for our current employees.

I would greatly appreciate the fee of $150.00 for reinstatement remain without an increase due to the explanation currently provided, I never received any documents. I would be very grateful for an immediate response to resolve this situation, reinstate my corporation and fund payroll. Enclosed is a company check in the amount of $150.00 to be applied for the fee of reinstatement. Thank you for your kindness and consideration during this difficult situation. Please contact me directly for assistance to expedite this challenge.

Sincerely,

Diane M. Brito
