To Whom This May Concern:

The RichView Group, Inc. recently was notified by our accountant that we had not paid our annual incorporation fee. First I personally would like to apologize, we had no intention of this happening.

The reason the payment was overlooked was due to the death of our president Robert Humphrey. On December 6, 1998 Robert passed away due to a massive heart attack.

This was the first time in my life I had someone that I worked with everyday (growing a business) pass away. That being said, I (27 yrs. old) was left to run his own company (alone) for the first time in my life. For the past 4 months I have been putting the pieces back together with the help of my accountant and really feel that our company is getting back on the right track to future success. This being said, I am hoping the IRS can be lenient this one time so we are not required to pay the penalty fee. To be completely honest, after Roberts' death we switched offices and I never received this particular renewal notice. I'm not saying it was not sent, I'm sure it was, but it has never been in my possession.

I have enclosed a check for last years fee and would appreciate if you would waive the penalty fee. I can assure you that if all of these circumstances had not occurred the fee would have been paid on time. Thanks for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Thomas Swartzbaugh
President
