Re: 1998 Coporate Profit Report

I called in April to inquire of the annual report that is due each year and why I had not received same. The person I spoke to indicated that there were some problems in the delivery of these forms on time and would send another set.

Today I have received a second notice and have never received the first set. Our address has not changed.

I am sending the reports with the renewal amounts of $150 each that would have been due had I received the first set on time.

I respectfully request the allowance of the filing of these without penalties as I did not receive the originals in time to respond. To pay the $550 each is an undue hardship that I cannot pay in the early start up of these corporations.

Thank you,

Robert Metzler
