Dear Division of Corporations:

I just received a notice that you have not received my "Profit Corporation Annual report - 1998."

I did not file because I never received a first notice. This is the first year I am a corporation and I did not know about this report otherwise I would have been on the look out for it.

I am writing to request you wave the late fee because this is my first year as a corporation and not only did I not know about the form, but I never received it when your office first mailed them out.

Thank you for this consideration.

Report and check for $150 enclosed.

Sincerely,

Harry Goldman
