To Whom It May Concern:

I am in receipt of your letter dated July 24, 2006. It states that the annual report for Radboud Properties, Inc. (Doc #P97000047985) has been received by your office, but that there is an additional $400 due. I am requesting that the late fee be waived. I mailed the original report on April 7, in the same envelope with two other reports. Those reports, and their accompanying checks, were received because the checks cleared their bank accounts. I re-submitted a second report on July 15, and the check for that one has also cleared its account. I feel that, in good faith, I mailed Radboud Properties, Inc.'s report in a timely fashion and the late fee should be waived.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Tim Craft, Accountant
