Dear Sir or Madam:

When I realized that our 2003 For Profit Corporation Uniform Business Report had not been filed, I called your office and spoke with a gentleman there about my dilemma that I have explained below. He recommended that I download the UBR and mail it along with a check for $150.00 and a letter explaining why it is being filed after May 1.

In February 2003, I was hired by Terry Yon & Associates, Inc. as their Controller. Since the principal place of business and the mailing address had changed since last year, the UBR package was never forwarded to our correct address. Since I was new and never received the UBR package, I thought that the Company's CPA firm had filed the UBR before my arrival.

In anticipation of the filing of Intangible Taxes, I also asked the CPA firm about the UBR and learned that it had never been filed.

I would be most grateful if you could waive the late fee of $400 due to these circumstances. Your consideration of this case is most greatly appreciated; thank you for your time and attention.

Sincerely,

Jane Bachtler
Controller
